Fairfield To Extend School Facilities; Will Add Third Kindergarten Class In Fall

Members of the Fairfield Area Merged School District, first in the county to meet since the state board of education announced a single school system for Adams County, Monday evening discussed the decision at length and debated the possibility of appealing the order to permit the release of McSherrystown and Conewago Twp. to York County.

However, it was pointed out, "an appeal at this level cannot be financed by taxpayer funds," and the board agreed that "probably nothing can be done about it."

Members were of the opinion, though, that they should make every effort to "improve our facilities to the full extent of the budget" over the next year.

URGES IMPROVEMENTS
Dr. Curvin C. Smith, supervising principal, said that such improvements could not include building projects, but, he pointed out, other facilities can be added to give "our students and the community" the advantage of better education prior to the July, 1966, establishment of the reorganization plan.

One of the decisions in the field of "improved facilities" was the approval of enlarging the Fairfield kindergarten program by a third section and hiring an additional teacher. Dr. Smith said that at present about 80 preschool children are enrolled in the program. He said that the school currently has facilities to accommodate about 90 pupils, with the addition of another teacher. The board authorized the addition of the third section for the 1965-66 term.

The board discussed the possibility of accepting tuition pupils from neighboring districts in the kindergarten program and agreed that if accommodations are available after all resident pupils are accepted the tuition plan could become effective in September.

REPORTS ON TRAINING ACT

Dr. Smith told the board that the Economic Opportunity Act program which he submitted several months ago to the federal government "is practically assured," and said that he is hopeful that by the April meeting it will be under way at the Fairfield school. He said that it will mean about $15,000 for the district in materials and training. He also said that because the program has been delayed, he expects that the local plan can be extended to provide employment and training for local students throughout the summer, with the exception of the early July period.

KIWANIS CLUB HOSTS LADIES FOR BIRTHDAY

The Kiwanis Club of Gettysburg celebrated the 10th anniversary of its founding at its meeting at the Holiday Inn Monday evening.

The 65 persons in attendance included the members and their wives, plus visitors from Westminster, Taneytown and Hanover Kiwanis Clubs. The main speaker, introduced by Charles W. Pentz, was Wilmer E. King, postmaster of Harrisburg and a member of the Harrisburg Kiwanis Club. Mr. King urged the Kiwanians to accept their responsibility to promote the virtues of patriotism, mercy and compassion.

Music included group singing led by Roy Thomas with Miss Mary Murdock at the piano and several numbers played by an instrumental trio composed of James Allison, Wesley Ayre and Bruce Van Dyke. William Ditzler, chairman for the evening, reviewed briefly the history of the local club. He also introduced these charter members, George Wolfe, Clyde Markle, Robert McCoy and Roy Thomas, in addition to himself.

The president, Edwin Kann, announced that the floral centerpieces, which were given to five of the women present, had been furnished by Ernst Krape, the first president of the club, who was prevented by illness from being present.

The special birthday cake was cut by President Kann and the newest member of the club, William Yohe, after Robert McCoy, a former president whose birthday was on Monday, blew out the candles. The local club received its charter in March of 1955.

About a half hour later the rocks and bottle started flying and mounted possemen, armed with billy clubs, rode slowly into the group. The Negroes, shouting as they scattered, faded into the neighborhood, running behind buildings and into open doorways.

There was a report that the action was taken to permit an ambulance to get through the blocked street, one of the busiest in the Negro section. A newsman at the scene said an ambulance followed the possemen through the group.

Police Chief Marvin Stanley said he was hit in the leg with a brick but suffered no serious injury. There were no reports that any of the demonstrators were injured.

WALTER B. LANE JOINS MARS RELAY SYSTEM

Walter B. Lane, York St., photographer and advisor for the Adams County Amateur Radio Society, has been accepted as a member of MARS, the Military Amateur Radio Service. It was announced Monday night at the meeting of the society in the Lane Studio.

MARS, it was explained is a "back up communications system for the military" comprised of a number of selected amateur operators throughout the world. Among individual members' duties is to provide a number of hours transmission weekly for members of the armed forces overseas who may wish to use amateur stations at their posts to end messages to their families within the area of the individual MARS station. Lane is a World War II naval officer.

Details of "Project Oscar 3" were outlined at the meeting. The present satellite was launched March 9, has a circular orbit at 502 miles and passes a given point on earth each 103.5 minutes. The satellite has retransmission facilities, is designed to pick up an amateur broadcast as it passes, then transmit the message to another spot on the earth. Cost of construction of the satellite is borne by the radio amateurs. The satellite were then given to the space agency for launching at such time as the space agency might have a rocket for other purposes which could also send the amateur radio satellite into orbit.

TRY TO TRACE BOY AND CYCLE

A 15-year-old boy and a small motorcycle were taken into custody on York St. at 3 o'clock this morning by borough police, and the officers later this morning were still trying to locate the youth's parents and the owner of the cycle.

Officer Ray Breighner, patrolling York St., saw a young man on a motorcycle go by him. The cycle had no registration plates, so he stopped the vehicle.

The boy gave his name and address in York and said he had stolen the motorcycle in York about 1:30 and headed west on Route 30.

A call to York city police disclosed there was no such address in York as that listed by the boy. Police this morning were making further checks to find the owner of the motorcycle and the parents of the boy.

URGE COUNTY TO ESTABLISH ALERT SYSTEM

The Adams County commissioners were urged this morning by state Civil Defense officials to establish an "emergency communications center" in the county.

The officials, regional director J. Robert Stimmel of Sellingsgrove, and state officials Earl Moser and James Riley of Harrisburg, held that in its "Quick Call Center" Adams County has "one of the finest centers of communication in any county in the state, but it is not an emergency center and in case of fall-out no one could man it."

Moser and Stimmel said the type of center approved by Civil Defense is one large enough to house all of the men needed for Civil Defense headquarters for 14 days—in event of atom bomb attack on the U. S. and with a "protection factor of at least 100."

BASEMENT LOCATION

Such a center, they said could be constructed in the basement of the courthouse, in the jail basement or elsewhere, so long as it had a protection factor above 100, which would mean that the commissioners, Civil Defense director, county fire chief and other members of the county CD staff could remain there until the danger of radiation had passed — a period of about two weeks. They said that the present Quick Call setup could continue intact, if remote facilities for its operation were established in the emergency control center. The federal government, they said, would pay half the cost of setting up the center. They also noted that no federal reimbursement is available for expansion or replacement of present radio equipment in the firemen's network of the county until such an emergency

"Buck-A-Cup" Day is being planned for April 1 as an extra source of funds for the work among crippled children in this county.

What appeared to be a definite minority — mainly from six Southern states primarily affected — threatened delaying tactics against the legislation, which Johnson said he would send to Congress Wednesday after outlining it to congressional leaders today.

Johnson Asks Congress For Early Voting Bill In Speech Monday Night

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson drew strong backing today from both Democratic and Republican ranks in his call for speedy congressional action to assure equal voting rights for all Americans.

VOTING RIGHTS BILL SEEKS TO END PREJUDICE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson sends to Congress this week legislative proposals aimed at ending racial discrimination against prospective voters.

What will the laws accomplish, if enacted, and how will they work?

While the details still are being worked out by the administration, here are some answers — based on briefings by top administration officials — to the broad question that may be raised:

Q. What is the objective of the voting rights bill?

A. To strike down what the administration feels are artificial barriers used by white officials to discriminate against Negroes seeking to exercise their voting rights at any level — federal, state or local.

WOULD ELIMINATE TESTS

Q. How will it accomplish that objective?

A. By doing away with all tests that have been used to discriminate and limiting voting eligibility requirements to a simple few: age, residence, mental competence and the lack of felony convictions. Furthermore, the bill will provide for federal officials to register citizens — and take their vote, if need be — if state or local officials continue to discriminate.

Q. Where would the new law apply?

A. It would apply in states — or other electoral subdivisions — that employ voter qualification tests, and where less than 50 per cent of the eligible adult population is registered or voted in the November 1964 election.

STATES AFFECTED

Q. What states fit that description?

A. Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina, Georgia, Virginia, Louisiana and Alaska. (Administration officials do not allege voter discrimination in Alaska. One pointed out that "the reason it is cold in November.") It also would apply to counties or other political subdivisions in other states.

Q. Does the bill mean federal registrars will immediately take over the registration job in the affected states?

A. No; the administration hopes the law striking down the so-called artificial tests will induce voluntary compliance by state and local officials. But the law would allow federal officials to do the job if the local registrars continued to balk.

LOW REGISTRATION

Q. What will trigger the law in a particular area?

A. The simple fact that fewer than 50 per cent of all eligible voters are registered, or turned out in November 1964, will automatically trigger the law abolishing all restrictions except the basic standards of age, residence, mental competence and lack of felony convictions. Complaints to the Justice Department by a certain number of Negroes that discrimination persisted would empower the attorney general to ask the Civil Service Commission to name a federal registrar — it could be the postmaster, for example — to register the aggrieved applicants. (The number of required complainants has not yet been set, but it is expected to be around 20.)

CIRCLE HEARS MRS. JORDAN

Mrs. W. E. Jordan, supervisor at the county home, was the speaker this morning at a meeting of Circle Two at Christ Lutheran Church.

Mrs. A. W. Butterfield, who introduced her, spoke briefly on a survey of changes in the ways of life for persons over 65, their spiritual needs, need of help to relieve loneliness and fear, and their need of feeling of continuing usefulness.

According to the speaker, it was after World War II when wives, who had gone to work, failed to return to their home duties which was the start of families failing to take care of the aged. Rehabilitation of old people is one of the main projects at the county home, Mrs. Jordan said, and noted they insist on residents trying to use their hands and cited many cases in which the aged began the use of their hands and were able to walk. All are required to take their meals in the dining room which seats 60. Occupational therapy is scheduled two days a week and many find it enjoyable after starting the treatment.

PAY AS ABLE

Mrs. Jordan cited the many activities at the county home, including birthday parties, programs by many organizations and pointed out that garden clubs do landscaping and plant flowers. She said the main problem is jealousy among the residents, and in many respects the guests there must be treated as children. She reported the auxiliary of the home furnished many items and pays for permanent hair-dos of the women. Haircuts are paid for by the county commissioners.

Guests pay as they go when they are able, according to Mrs. Jordan. There are now 31 men and 43 women at the home. There are always nurses and a male attendant on duty 24 hours per day, she said. Articles made by the residents were displayed.

Mrs. Charles Glatfelter and Mrs. Edwin Freed are the Circle's representatives to the auxiliary. Mrs. Clarence Benson presided at the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. A. R. Wentz.

FEDERAL AID

In their discussion the state CD officials said the county commissioners should enter into an agreement by which the federal government will pay one-half the salary of the Civil Defense director or $1,200 of the $2,400 currently being paid. They said that if the commissioners entered into a "personnel and administration" agreement now the reimbursement could start July 1.

Stimmel said Adams County was one of the first in the state to enter into a personnel and administration agreement about four years ago and everything had been cleared for the federal government to pay half the salary of then CD Director William G. Weaver and for a clerk-stenographer. However, when Weaver became mayor, and thus could not serve as a paid CD director for the county because of the Hatch Act, the then county commissioners notified the state to cancel that agreement.

PERSONNEL WAGES

Moser said that under such an agreement half the salary of the CD director and of a clerk or clerks and even a janitor could be paid. A clerk engaged in Civil Defense work would have to be available full time in the CD office, but "if she completed her CD work, which must come first, she could do any other work the commissioners might assign her."

Meeting with the CD officials and the commissioners were county CD Director Wilbur Plank and the commissioner's solicitor, Attorney Eugene R. Hartman. Moser gave the commissioners a file containing various resolutions and forms that need be filled out should the commissioners plan to enter into an administrative and personnel agreement.

Will Double State Guard Under Merger

HARRISBURG (AP) — Adj. Gen. Thomas R. White Jr., said today that Gov. Scranton has approved a troop structure offered to the state by the Defense Department in connection with the proposed merger of the National Guard and Army reserves.

Gen. White said that under the Defense Department plan the National Guard in Pennsylvania "will almost be doubled."

Should the plan be instituted, he said, the strength in the state would consist of 32,000 men and officers.

Gen. White told the Senate Military Affairs Committee that Scranton gave his approval Monday.

NEED APPROVAL

By law, the governor must approve all changes to the Pennsylvania National Guard.

Defense Secretary Robert MacNamara last December proposed a merger of the National Guard and reserve forces which would leave the entire structure under control of the National Guard.

Before the meeting today, Sen. Clarence D. Bell, R-Delaware, told a newsman: "I am of the opinion that there should be no merger of the guard and reserve in the United States. I feel that in these troubled times we need both."

"If the merger plan is approved," Bell added, "the plan for Pennsylvania is a very fair plan and provides a comprehensive organization."

KANIN RETURNS TO HOLLYWOOD AFTER LAPSE

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Garson Kanin has long posed an enigma for the movie crowd: why would a man start a brilliant career as a film director, then abandon it?

Broadway-trained Kanin came to Hollywood in the late 1930s and dazzled the town by turning B pictures into minor classics, notably "A Man to Remember" and "The Great Man Votes." RKO graduated him to top productions and he directed such hit comedies as "Bachelor Mother" and "Tom Dick and Harry," both starring Ginger Rogers.

PICKED BY ARMY

Kanin was one of the first film figures to be drafted, and he spent five years in the Army. His most notable work during that period was the great documentary "The True Glory," which he and Carol Reed assembled from the footage of more than a thousand combat cameramen, 32 of whom were killed in action.

That was Kanin's last filmmaking. After the war he became enamored with writing, creating "Born Yesterday" and other plays, scores of short stories, a novel, and movie scripts. "A Double Life," "Adam's Rib," etc., which he wrote with his wife, actress Ruth Gordon.

READY TO RETURN

Back in town while his wife appears with Natalie Wood in "Inside Daisy Clover," Kanin disclosed he is ready to return to film directing.

"I'm actually prepared to start right away," he said. "MGM has bought my script, 'Roses Are Blue,' and I hope we will be able to start this spring. But we are running into the same problem that faces all producers nowadays: casting."

"The script calls for a girl who is clever, beautiful, sexy, emotional and young. Not many are around to fill these requirements, and those that do are all booked up."

Kanin said he couldn't explain his absence from screen direction beyond the fact that he has been doing the things he likes to do.

Scientists Visit Israeli Reactor

WASHINGTON (AP) — A State Department spokesman says American scientists have visited an Israeli nuclear reactor in the Negev Desert near Beersheba.

But press officer Marshall Wright emphasized: "There was no inspection. The Dimona project has been visited by American scientists, but inspection is not the correct expression."

During a Monday news conference, Wright also refused to say whether the visit satisfied the United States that the reactor would be used only for peaceful purposes.

mittee would start hearings on the bill a week from today and predicted House action by early next month. Senate leaders were uncertain on a timetable.

U. S. REGISTRARS

The bill will call for appointment of federal registrars by the Civil Service Commission to guarantee that all qualified persons are permitted to vote in areas where fewer than 50 percent of those qualified are registered, or where fewer than 50 percent voted in last year's presidential election.

Justice Department officials said this would apply to the states of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Virginia, Georgia and South Carolina. Fewer than 50 percent voted in Alaska, but officials blamed this on cold weather, rather than discrimination.

WANTS ACTION

Johnson called on Congress to work nights and weekends if necessary to pass the voting rights bill.

"There must be no delay, or no hesitation, or no compromise with our purpose," he said.

Johnson said "the real hero of this struggle is the American Negro" whose "actions and protests — his courage to risk safety, and even to risk his life — have awakened the conscience of this nation."

He defended "the right of free speech and the right of free assembly" but noted that "free assembly does not carry with it the right to block public thoroughfares to traffic."

SOVIET JOINS PATENT PACT

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union today joined the international agreement requiring it to buy a manufacturing license before it copies a foreign industrial invention.

Yevgeny Artemyev, vice chairman of the Soviet State Committee on Inventions, announced to a committee of experts of the International Bureau for the Protection of Intellectual Property that his government is joining the 1983 Paris convention on industrial patents and trademarks.

The bureau committee of the 67-nation convention had expected a long wrangle over a Soviet demand for recognition of the system of inventor's certificates, their alternative to the Western patent system.

The inventor's certificate, which is not recognized by the bureau, gives the state exclusive right to exploit any invention. A patent gives the inventor exclusive control over his discovery.

Soviet Harvests Surge Upward

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says last year's Soviet farm production surged upward from the 1963 level which forced the Soviets to import food grain from the United States and Canada.

The department says a preliminary estimate shows Soviet output in 1964 as 9.2 percent greater than in the previous year.

STATE TOMATO CROP DROPPED TO 5-YR. LOW

Both Pennsylvania and New Jersey growers marketed fewer tomatoes in 1964 than in 1963, with the Keystone State shipping its lowest volume in at least five years, according to the annual report of the Federal-State Market News Service.

John P. Capus, market news representative of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service, said that carlot shipments from Pennsylvania dropped seven percent from 632 in 1963 to 586 last year. New Jersey carlots were down from 962 to 939 in 1964 — a decline of only 2 1/2 percent. Widespread irrigation to offset unusually dry weather helped New Jersey to hold volume close to the 1963 level. The important Scranton-Berwick area of Pennsylvania was particularly hard hit by dry weather conditions and early frosts.

CITY MARKETS DOWN

Most of Pennsylvania's crop went to New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. New York City, major recipient of Pennsylvania's tomatoes, took 37 more carlots last year than in 1963. However, shipments declined sharply in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, from a combined total of 251 carlots in 1963 to only 144 in 1964. The totals were 270 for New York, 66 for Philadelphia and 78 for Pittsburgh.

More than 90 percent of New Jersey tomatoes were shipped to New York and Philadelphia. Philadelphia absorbed 459 carlots last year, up eight carlots from 1963, while New York City took 404, down 24 from the previous year. Even though Pennsylvania shipments were considerably lower than the New Jersey volume, Keystone State shippers had a much wider distribution with sales in southern markets holding up or being heavier than at any time in the past five years, except 1962.

During the main marketing period of July through September, the Garden State ranked second, again behind California in the number of shipments. Pennsylvania held its position as fifth ranking state, with Ohio and Virginia in third and fourth place, respectively.

TENSION ON CYPRUS RISES

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Turkey and the Greek Cypriots swapped threats today as tension on this island continued to mount.

The Greek Cypriot guard headquarters said a Greek Cypriot soldier was killed Monday and two others were wounded by Turkish Cypriot fire in the Lefka area on the northwest coast.

Gen. George Grivas, commander in chief of the Cyprus army, flew to Athens to confer with Greek military leaders. He told newsmen in Athens: "If Turkey bombs Cyprus, it will receive an immediate and smashing answer."

Turkey's armed forces went on the alert. Air force pilots were ordered to stay at their bases. Press reports said a 33-ship naval force sailed for the Mediterranean from the port of Izmir. Government sources said the ships were on routine maneuvers.

ried when students will be excused to pick cherries. He said the summer training program would also include some type of formal classroom instruction.

Dr. Smith explained that four teachers have volunteered to supervise the summer training program, and he added that other skilled advisors will be needed to carry out the program of training. About 80 percent of the available funds must be used for employee wages, he said.

VARIETY OF TRAINING

Among the jobs the students will perform under the program are repairing or replacing fences on school property, cleaning up the areas, painting interiors, construction and operation of a greenhouse, grading and draining a portion of the school property, landscaping and repairing the roof of the school building.

Dr. Smith said, "the Fairfield program, if approved, will be the only one in this part of the state."

In other issues, the board hired Larry Wyles, who will graduate this year from Elizabethtown College, to teach English in the Junior High School and to coach JV basketball at a salary of $4,900. Wyles has been a member of the Elizabethtown College varsity squad.

AUTHORIZE ARREST

The board authorized Dr. Smith to proceed with the arrest of the parents of a student who has violated the "legal excuse" law despite repeated warnings of legal action. The board was told that the boy has accumulated six illegal absences so far this year and that he has continued to ignore the law.

Students who drive to school will be required to show proof of insurance coverage on the vehicles they use on school property. The action was voted last fall to protect the lives and property of other students and school personnel but school officials suspect that some vehicles are not actually covered by insurance.

The board also voted to continue the policy of issuing diplomas to special education pupils who have completed at least 12 years of attendance but agreed that the certificate will specify that the student was enrolled in the basic skills course.

WILL INVEST $30,000

The board authorized the investment of $30,000 in government bonds for a 90-day period after the treasurer's report revealed a balance of $77,000. Bills were approved for payment in the amount of $24,203.01 from receipts of $101,551.

The board was told that the school had purchased a half-ton pickup truck from state surplus for $50.

The board adopted the 1965-66 school calendar proposed by Dr. Smith, which lists the opening day of school as September 8. The Thanksgiving vacation will be extended to permit a "hunting" holiday November 29. The term will close June 3.

President Joseph T. Lowe was in charge of the meeting which was attended by 11 members.

HAUL 11 CIVIL RIGHTISTS OUT OF BUILDING

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eleven civil rights demonstrators were hauled out of the Capitol Monday night after they staged a three-hour sit-in to dramatize their request that Alabama's congressional delegation be reduced.

Earlier, the group had talked to House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., and asked that the eight-member House delegation from Alabama be cut in half because of alleged voting discrimination against Negroes.

Police gave the group until 6 p.m. to leave, and when the deadline arrived, officers carried and dragged them outside, at least one being bounced all the way down the outside stairs. When the 11 refused a police order to disperse immediately, they were taken to police stations.

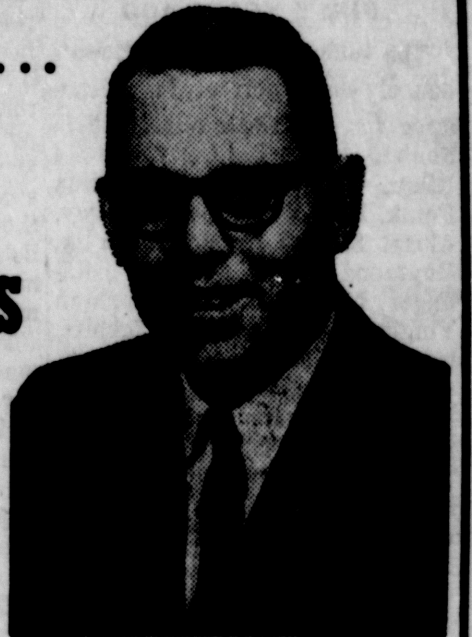

The demonstrators said they were members of the Congress of Racial Equality and Students Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

The following pupils of Boyd's school were perfect in attendance for the sixth month: Ella Shultz, Annie Hollinger, Luella Riley, Ethel Knox, Oneida Foulk, Paul Riley, George Riley, Albert Shultz, Dorsey Foulk, Raymond Foulk, Roland Hollinger, Harry Knox and Norman Yingling. Irving Literary Society of Biglerville will hold their next meeting Tuesday evening. At this meeting the Woman's Suffrage question will be debated. Everybody is invited.

Arundellville: At this writing we have about five inches of snow. . . C. H. Klepper had the electric light put in his store and dwelling house. . . At the public sale held here last Friday by the McDannell Brothers, Joseph Twining purchased a cow for $75.00. On Monday following the cow gave birth to twin calves. . . Arthur Roberts shipped a fine Guernsey registered heifer to Butler county last week.

The Gettysburg Fire Company decided at their monthly meeting to make an effort to have the First Ward polling place removed to the Engine House from the Lincoln Way Hotel. A desire to secure the revenue is given as the reason for their action.

That Friday night's fire in which the two story frame structure on West Middle street, belonging to the McPherson Estate, was totally destroyed, demonstrated once again the necessity for the purchase of an automobile engine was the statement made this morning by Chief of the Department Allen B. Plank. With the building there burned a quantity of fresh fruit and vegetables the property of George Buehl and all of the shoemaking equipment of Theodore Homan. "If we had had modern apparatus last night" Mr. Plank said, "that fire would have been out in ten minutes. Three plug streams were all we had with which to fight for twenty minutes and the one engine stream was added. A night with high winds would have meant an enormous blaze in view of the fact that the building was so close to the street. The fire was first seen by William Kendeheart, Jr., who, with George Slonaker, turned in an alarm."

As the result of a petition signed by 250 pupils of the Gettysburg high and grammar schools, presented by Guyon Miller at the meeting of the Friday evening the following committee was appointed to investigate the cost of equipping the High School building with a gymnasium: C. K. Gilbert, C. Wm. Beales, Sherman Martin, Prof. W. D. Reynolds and Prof. Charles F. Sanders.

Fire Chief Allen Plank has been presented with a green and white lantern by Samuel Weiser. At Friday night's fire Mr. Weiser noticed that it was difficult to distinguish the chief in the dark and he conceived the idea of equipping him with a lantern that could be seen at a distance. The gift is much appreciated.

Today's Talk

THE SPARK

There is always some sort of spark that makes things go, whether it be an engine or the mind of man. I recall a hurricane which rushed upon my city one year. Suddenly all lights went out. The furnace became idle. The TV was stilled. The sparks refused to work!

Unless the plugs in your car spark you get no power. The electric dynamo has to get a spark before it will furnish its great power. There has to be a vital spark behind every human endeavor to make it work and achieve results.

The football or baseball coach is the spark behind the efficient working of his team. When that mental spark reaches every man on the team it performs in an unbeatable manner. There is a gentleman in the American Congress who is alluded to as "the whip," meaning he is the one who sees that members are in their places, and that they vote upon important measures, or are not off hunting or giving speeches! He is the spark that gets legislation into high gear.

All of us have inspiring friends who spark us into doing our best, who often arouse us from lethargy and inactivity to the doing of things of which we thought ourselves incapable. There are those in all great organizations who spark the many employees to their best and headier work. And there are leaders who spark the minds of an entire nation. Such a one was Winston Churchill.

Many a book, through its careful reading, has so sparked the mind of a person that his entire life has been changed or rearranged. I have known of many such instances. In one's own library one may find books that may spark the mind to happy and inspired thought. Darwin's "Origin of Species" sparked a whole train of new thought when it was first published. In order to be alert we need such sparks to keep our mind active and productive.

There are personalities who meet that immediately spark our mental or spiritual forces and set them to work for our own good and the good of others. How vital is that spark! How important to have it — and to keep it working.

Just Folks

THE CHIEF AIM
If it's money you are after,
You must turn away from laughter
And put pity for another
Out of heart and out of mind.
If your only aim is money,
Be it rainy day or sunny,
You must work long hours to get it,
Without stopping to be kind.

But if you'd have friends about you,
Loved ones true who never doubt you,
If you think there's more to gether
Than a bankroll down the years;
If you'd share in fullest measure
All the joys allowed to leisure,
You must take the time from business
When the chance to play appears.

Oh the best life is the rounded
One on loving service founded;
One that bears life's burdens bravely,
But remembers to be kind;
One, beyond the call of duty,
Still finds time for things of beauty,
And at last leaves happy memories

To the friends who stay behind.

The election will be held at the April 11 meeting. Plans were finalized to serve the ladies of the parish a brunch Sunday at 11:30 a.m. in observance of the parish day of Recollection. The Day of Recollection will begin with the 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday. The Rev. Dr. John E. Metz, pastor, will conduct the spiritual exercises. The program will conclude with Holy Hour and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. High school girls are also invited to participate.

The annual Conewago Deamery of Holy Name Societies banquet will be held Thursday, April 29, at the Basilica at Conewago. Gene Haas, head football coach at Gettysburg College, will be the speaker. Men of the parish planning to attend should contact a Holy Name officer for tickets. The annual Holy Name Society breakfast served by the ladies of the church will be held September 12 after the early Mass.

The committee in charge of arrangements consists of Robert Breighner, Stewart N. Long, Clyde Rohrbaugh Jr. and Leo Riley. All Eighth Grade boys will be received into the society at the May meeting. Tentative plans were made to initiate a winter athletic program for the Junior Holy Name Society.

TO CONFER ON "CEASE-FIRE" IN S. VIET NAM

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
LONDON (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko arrived in London today for four days of talks. The British are proposing that the Soviets join them in seeking an informal cease-fire in Viet Nam followed by peace negotiations.

Government sources said the British formula was worked out with President Johnson's terms for negotiations in mind.

The British plan calls for the Soviet Union to persuade Communist North Viet Nam to stop sending aid to the Viet Cong guerrillas in the South. Gromyko will be told this would not necessarily spell doom for the Viet Cong if, as the Communists claim, they represent a national uprising, the sources said.

PLAN U. S. TALKS

In return, the British would undertake to persuade the United States to halt its air strikes against North Viet Nam.

The British feel a formal cease-fire would be too difficult to supervise since there is no fixed front in the Vietnamese war.

Once the fighting stops, the British want to launch negotiations for a settlement that would safeguard the international status and internal stability of South Viet Nam. The British feel this would probably involve international supervision, possibly by the United Nations, of the border between North and South Viet Nam.

Talks could be conducted through diplomatic channels, at a special conference on Viet Nam or in a roundabout way, by convening a conference on Laos. The latter course would cause less loss of face for all.

Britain and the Soviet Union were cochairmen of the 1954 Geneva conference which ended the French-Indochinese war and partitioned Viet Nam.

CLASS B TITLE TO BE DECIDED THIS EVENING

By DAVE LEHERR
Associated Press Writer

The school that owns the state record for consecutive basketball victories battles the team that's trying to break that record tonight for the PIAA Class B Eastern Regional Championship.

The match pits unbeaten Montrose of District 12 against Darby-Colwyn of District 1 at Bethlehem for the right to represent the East in the state finals next Saturday.

Montrose, the defending Class B champ, has won 51 straight and will be seeking No. 52, just two shy of the record-setting 54 straight won by Darby-Colwyn between 1961 and 1964.

RALLY BY LYKENS

Cambridge Springs of District 10 clashes with Northern Cambria of District 6 at New Wilmington for the Western Regional Class B title.

In the only PIAA game Monday night, Lykens (Dist. 3) captured the Eastern Class C title with a second quarter rally that carried it to a 64-54 triumph over Waymart of District 12.

The victory qualified Lykens to meet Conneaut Lake of District 10 for the Class C Championship Saturday night at Lewisburg.

Waymart lost the game at the foul line, sinking only four of 18 shots while Lykens managed to convert 18 of 29.

SCORING HONORS

Waymart outscored the winners in field goals, 25-23.

Don Grubb of Lykens won scoring honors with 22 points. Ozzie Osborne was high for the losers with 16.

The Class A regional championships are scheduled for Wednesday with Steelton-Highspire (Dist. 3) battling Mahanoy Area (Dist. 11) in the East and Midland (Dist. 7) taking on Pittsburgh Schenley (Dist. 8) in the West. The winners will meet Saturday for the State Championship at the Harrisburg Farm Show Arena.

ARABS OPPOSE TIES BETWEEN ISRAEL, BONN

By DAVID LANCASTER

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Demonstrations against West Germany erupted in the Arab world today as establishment of diplomatic relations between West Germany and Israel drew near.

The Bonn government said two floors of its embassy in Baghdad, Iraq, were burned out during a demonstration. And Baghdad radio said 10,000 Iraqis marched on the embassy. The West German flag was hauled down from the roof.

Both reports agreed that no embassy employees were hurt.

In Beirut, demonstrators yelled slogans of praise for Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser as they milled about in the city's downtown quarters.

SCORE PRESIDENT

The demonstrators denounced Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba for his recent criticism of Nasser's call for Arab world reprisals against West Germany.

Lebanese riot police stood guard at the West German and Tunisian embassies and German schools. Squads of armed gendarmes prevented the surging demonstrators from moving from the downtown area toward the embassies.

EXPECT APPROVAL

In Jerusalem, the Israeli parliament was expected to vote tonight to establish diplomatic relations with Bonn. Only a simple majority is needed for approval, and parliamentary sources said the resolution has the support of about two-thirds of the members.

Voting was scheduled at the end of debate on a statement by Premier Levi Eshkol, recommending that Israel accept Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's proposal to open full relations.

Sources in the Knesset, Israel's parliament, said agreement to support the resolution was reached Monday night by Eshkol's social democratic Mapai party, a number of Arab deputies associated with the Mapai, both wings of the Liberal party and the religious - orthodox groupings.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The City of Chattanooga has issued a subtle warning to motorists. The City Commission has ordered 30,000 books of traffic tickets from a printer. That's enough for 1,200,000 violations.

PEACE FOR VIET NAM North and South Should Negotiate President's Policies Must Be Supported

NOW COMES FORTH a member of the new South Viet Nam cabinet with the idea his government and that of North Viet Nam should negotiate a peace.

This could be a good omen. The best peace is when both the principal combatants become thoroughly war weary and voluntarily come to an agreement acceptable to both. Such a peace is normally of long duration.

When powerful outsiders, or an agency such as the U.N., comes in and forces a compromise that is unacceptable to either side, the result is no more than an armed truce, laden with dynamic distrust.

That is the big trouble in Korea today. Such peace as exists is not between the North and South Koreans. It is a compromise within agencies and among powers foreign to Korea.

A COMPLETE lack of war weariness north and south in Viet Nam has been one of the discouraging factors.

Red propaganda against American policies there has made some headway with the theme that our nonmilitary aids to South Viet Nam have made the nation so prosperous there is a national, vested interest in keeping America as deeply involved as possible for as long as possible.

South Vietnamese production of rice and rubber, thanks to American aid, is the highest in history. Both are large export items. The million-and-a-half dollars per day America pours into the country as military support and in American payrolls creates a war prosperity.

To a selfish businessman in Saigon, it might well appear to be worth the Viet Cong rural raids. Their casualty rates are hardly higher, on a per capita basis than the highway death and injury ratios in the United States. It is a death-rate prosperity. Perhaps Viet Nam can pay a similar price indefinitely, he could rationalize.

ECONOMIC INFORMATION on North Viet Nam is not so easy to come by. But, compared to 10 years ago, the industrial scene is one of booming prosperity.

There is no exportation of rice. The peasants have been collectivized into "agricultural cooperatives." Imports are needed in all but the top crop years. Rubber production is low. Extensive coal fields are state owned; as are the industrial plants that use their output.

The older industries created by the French have been taken over. A cement factory in this category produced nearly a half million metric tons in 1961. Former French cotton and silk mills are busy.

Within the last two or three years the ambitious Hanoi Engineering Works blossomed with Russian machinery and technical know-how. China met this competing Soviet influence with quick construction of consumer goods light industry for production of matches, soap, knitwear, cigarettes, rubber goods, enamelware.

Czechoslovakia, most likely prompted by Russia, courted North Viet Nam with machines and technicians for a plywood factory at Haiphong. China has countered with a recent electric lamp factory.

Poland with a sugar refinery and East Germany with a glass works have recently further supported Russian brand of communism in North Viet Nam.

It appears the Viet Cong are having a good time milking both the Russian and Chinese brands of communism just as Egypt's Nasser has founded a national prosperity and economy by blackmailing Russia and the United States.

Moreover, the managers of Communist plants in Hanoi have not been bothered by threats of Buddhist monks burning themselves to death at the factory gate during shift change time, or a prowler throwing a hand grenade through a window, as has been occasionally happening at Saigon.

Indeed, until President Johnson's retaliatory raid policy, no one in North Viet Nam had any cause for worry whatsoever from any form of fire power.

IF THERE IS to be sufficient war weariness in North Viet Nam to welcome any proffered olive branch from South Viet Nam, it will come from Mr. Johnson's retaliatory raids.

To be sure, there is a risk. But the thousands of pages of diplomatic history reveal no case of a wanton aggressor nation being willing to negotiate a peace until it has felt the harsh prod of retribution.

President Johnson's policy merits our fullest support. Senator Wayne Morse should be repudiated. The latter's recent blast at the University of Chicago sustains his growing reputation for irresponsible, self-serving cynicism.

He fits into Oscar Wilde's definition of a cynic: "A man who knows the price of everything and the value of nothing."

Health

The queen couldn't take it. Eleanor of England moved out from her palace each winter because of London's coal smoke. Polluted air, an old problem, has not been completely solved. Today's industrial prosperity evokes dust and gas emissions contributing to air pollution. Not advantageous for crops. Not desirable for livestock. Not beneficial for people.

A combination of honey, lemon juice and a dash of salt makes a good dressing for a fruit salad.

There are 35 two-year colleges in Pennsylvania.

FARM CALENDAR

Keep Tree Seedlings Moist — Tree seedlings must be kept moist from the time they leave the nursery until they are planted, says E. P. Farrand, extension forester at the Pennsylvania State University. A good root system is necessary for successful planting.

Be Careful With Gasoline — The Farm and Home Safety Committee of the Pennsylvania State University says the safest way to store gasoline is in an underground tank. Storage above ground should be at least 40 feet from the nearest buildings. Keep containers in good repair and check for leaks.

Protect Cows — During March winds, watch those open doors, broken windows and large cracks in the dairy barn. Joe Taylor, extension dairy specialist at the Pennsylvania State University, explains that drafts chill high-producing cows and mastitis often results.

Prevent icy walks — Future home builders can prevent icy steps and walks by installing a heating cable in the walk, suggests the Farm and Home Safety Committee of the Pennsylvania State University. This cable can be plugged in when weather is bad and used only long enough to melt the snow or ice.

SOLONS PUSH KEY PROGRAMS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress pushes ahead on key parts of President Johnson's program this week, while waiting to go to work on his voting rights proposals.

Johnson planned to present the outlines of his voting plan in a speech to a joint session tonight. The bill itself is not likely to go to Capitol Hill before Wednesday, and no action on it is expected this week.

The Senate is expected to take up a measure expanding the Federal Manpower Retraining Act. The Senate Labor Committee approved most of President Johnson's recommendations.

Senate investigators will continue their probe of recent bank closings.

Hearings on Johnson's proposals to revise immigration laws will continue before a Senate Judiciary subcommittee, while a Senate Education subcommittee starts hearings Tuesday on the college aid portion of his education program.

The bulk of the education plan, a $1.3-billion measure aimed primarily at low-income elementary school districts, has been approved by the House Education and Labor Committee. The House Rules Committee may start hearings on it this week to clear it for floor action.

The House Judiciary Committee starts hearings Tuesday on the proposed constitutional amendment dealing with presidential disability and succession. It has been approved by the Senate.

The House opens debate Tuesday on a bill which would require that congressional districts be compact and contiguous, with no more than a 15 per

2 PA. SOLONS HAVE WIFE AND SON, PAYROLL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Pennsylvania members of Congress—Rep. Elmer J. Holland, Pittsburgh Democrat, and Rep. Robert N. C. Nix, Philadelphia Democrat — have members of their families on their payrolls. Nix employs his wife, Emily. She was paid $1,088 for January, top salary in his congressional office. Nix had his son, Robert N. C. Nix, Jr., on his January payroll. He was paid $623.

No other examples of nepotism in the Pennsylvania congressional delegation were apparent from the payrolls. Senate payroll figures just made public cover the last three months of 1964.

Payrolls of the Pennsylvania senatorial offices rounded to the nearest dollar, for the last three months of 1964:

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

Do your hands show the scars of work? No matter what kind of work a woman does, there are occupational hazards for her hands.

The questions from readers, below, cover common problems incurred on the career and home fronts. Among the answers you may well find a solution for your own battle scars.

Q. from a homemaker: Is there a workable waterproof glove? When I wear plastic or rubber gloves, my hands perspire and feel miserable. If I don't wear them my hands look a mess.

A. Try fabric lined gloves. Before donning, sprinkle the insides with talcum powder. Wash gloves, inside and out, after each wearing and thoroughly dry.

Q. from an order clerk: How can I get rid of a callous on my writing finger — middle finger where my pen rests? A. Oil callous, night and morning. While writing, protect finger with sewing guard (found at notion counters) or with strip of cellophane mending tape.

Q. from a secretary: What stops polish chips? I am never without them, thanks to pounding the typewriter keys. A. So as not to strike keys, keep nails filed in medium-short ovals. Between manicures, apply polish sealer every other night.

Q. from a fashion illustrator: Are people like me who work with charcoal and inks, doomed to dark stains under the nails? A. No! Simply clean under the nail tips with cotton swabs, dipped in cuticle remover. Follow with sudsy brush-scrub and then, using fresh swab, underline nails with film of hand lotion.

LOVELIER HANDS

Do you have a hand problem? Send today for LOVELIER HANDS, a booklet that covers every step in a quest for hand beauty. It tells how to keep the skin and nails groomed; how to overcome weak nails, polish chips, discolored knuckles, prominent veins, wrinkles; how to use the hands with poised grace. To obtain your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin.

HOMING PHEASANTS

ROME (AP) — The Rome Zoo is proud of its "homing pheasants." Two valuable golden pheasants escaped during a blizzard when a falling tree burst open their pen. After a day out in the storm the pheasants returned and keepers found them trying to get back in the pen.

Social Security

Q. I will be 65 in June. I still work and earn about $2,400 a year. I am married and have two small children. I could not afford to quit to get my social security payments. What good would it do for me to come to see you?

A. You might find that you and your family could get some monthly checks even though you are still working. It pays to find out the facts ahead of time.

Q. What should a person close to age 62 do to protect his social security rights?

A. Get in touch with a social security office or representative to find out under what circumstances benefits may be paid. A person can qualify for reduced benefits at age 62, and may receive benefits under certain circumstances. A person age 62 should know when benefits may be paid so that he can claim them if due.

Q. I am now past 65, but when I checked on my social security a few years ago I was told I had not worked long enough to be eligible for cash benefits. Have there been any changes in the social security law that may change my eligibility status?

A. Everyone over 65 should check on his social security account. Several changes in the social security laws since 1960 have reduced the amount of work required to be eligible for benefits. More than 85 percent of the people 65 or over can now qualify for monthly benefits. If you are 65 or older, check your social security office. You may be in for a pleasant surprise.

NEW BILLS ARE OFFERED

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Scranton Administration is setting out to increase benefits in the state's workmen's compensation and occupational disease programs.

A two-bill package was introduced in the Senate Monday with Republican sponsorship.

Both measures would increase weekly maximum payments for all forms of disability by $2.50.

Both also would increase medical and surgical benefits from $450 to $750 over a 12 month period.

OTHER MEASURES

The occupational disease proposal also would extend from four to eight years the time in which a person may file for a disability claim.

Other bills introduced would: —Permit persons over 21 to import one gallon of tax-free liquor into Pennsylvania from another state.

—Increase the penalty for telephoning a bomb hoax from one-year imprisonment and/or $1,000 fine to five years and/or $5,000.

—Appropriate $4 million to state-aided hospitals and the Philadelphia General Hospital for student nurse training programs.

Absolutely Latest in Pop-Op Beauty Has Weird Fashion Notes; Artful Spoofs Abound

Editor's Note — The latest vogue in the constantly changing world of art are op and pop, that is art which tricks the eye with lines or color, and art which is based on a reproduction of common, everyday items. The world of fashion, always on the alert to attract the lady buyer, has taken advantage of the new interest in op and pop. Fashion writer Jean Sprain Wilson reviews the latest in this sometimes mixed up milieu.

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — When Audrey closed her left eye a swirl of lines drawn on the lid converged into a weird, hypnotic second eyeball. Her right eye was laid and her cherry red lips were outlined in black.

Not at all a clown, the comely model was wearing pop-op party makeup.

When she shifted her shapely legs two painted eyes, one on each knee, ogled back at the leg-walkers. Seated at her feet, William Loew, makeup director for Charles of the Ritz, tediously labeled one eye "Stop" and the other "Go," then sealed this literal leg art with a cloud of powder.

SPOOKS AND TRICKERY

It's absolutely the latest in pop-op beauty. Well, maybe.

Being on top of what is "absolutely the latest" is not easy because the beauty and fashion industries are rushing their adaptations of the current art vogue to market at lightning speed. They have to move fast, lest the fad fade into pure folly as quickly as it exploded onto the fashion scene.

Pop, say some art critics, is an artful spoof. Op is visual trickery. When it is hard to draw the line between what is op and what is pop, they call it "pop-op."

Pop was first to pop into fashion, but op was only a quivery line away. Setting a climate for a silly style season, American fashion designers unashamedly borrowed for their summer collections the output of pop advocates like Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein.

BRUSHES FOR NEEDLES

Instead of needles, they used paint brushes to put collars, ties, belts, buttons and vests onto dresses; they even drew on watch faces and corsets.

Kenneth Lane and other avant-garde costume jewelry makers did their spoofing with beads the size of door knobs and rings as big as ping-pong balls. Dr. Seuss-type animals curled around arms as bracelets. Opaque sun glasses turned the wearers into blank-eyed Orphan Anns.

Loew, looked upon by many as the founder of op leg art, calls the whole movement in fashion "a tool of the modern woman's total originality, a part of her new status as a cerebral woman."

REAL DRAMA ON SUNDAY NIGHT ON TV SHOW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — "Preview," one of the occasional special programs in c which Douglas Fairbanks Jr. purports to give television viewers an intimate peek at backstage goings-on, was meandering along Sunday night when suddenly there was an explosion of real drama.

Fredric March and Florence Eldridge appeared in two short scenes from Lillian Hellman's play, "The Autumn Garden." On a bare stage and with two chairs for props, these fine performers armed with a playwright's meaningful lines literally pulled a drowsy viewer to the edge of the chair.

A major disappointment of the weekend was ABC's "The Bold Men," on Saturday night. It was produced by David Wolper, whose documentaries and actuality programs usually have style and a point of view.

This one showed an assortment of men whose occupation is defying sudden, violent death — high diver, lion tamer, racing car driver and a movie stuntman leaping from a plane without a parachute.

It might have been more interesting had any of the men been the subject of a study so that we might have understood why he chose to live so perilously.

Danny Thomas on his NBC special Sunday night had a whole constellation of stars turning up, unannounced and unidentified, in walk-on parts — Jack Benny, Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, Edie Adams, Andy Griffith among others. The hit of the evening, however, was new star Jim Nabors who for a few glorious moments dropped his comedy character of Gomer Pyle and uncorked a magnificent baritone voice in an operatic solo.

Thomas' show was a nostalgic look back on the happy days of burlesque. The premise gave a chance to go through some slapstick routines and Mickey Rooney plunged into them joyously.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Richard S. Schweiker is a proud father for the third time.

Schweiker rushed back to Washington from a Pottstown, Pa., speaking engagement Saturday night for the birth of a daughter, named Kyle Claire, born at George Washington Hospital. The Schweikers' other children are Malcolm 7, and Lani Lynne 4.

burg, a motorcade was planned through Philadelphia. A civil rights march was also planned around Philadelphia's city hall.

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEST, the saliva (acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Chalks "plate color" breath. ## MARCHES AND RALLIES HELD ACROSS STATE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Memorial services... rallies... marches...

In these ways, Pennsylvanians honored the memory of the Rev. James J. Reeb or showed their support Sunday for Negro civil rights in Selma, Ala.

The Rev. Reeb, who once lived in Philadelphia, was the Boston minister who was fatally beaten in Selma while there to march in Negro voter demonstrations.

Gov. Scranton, his wife, Mary, and their son Peter, attended a special interfaith service Sunday night at St. Paul's Baptist Church in Harrisburg.

March in Pittsburgh
About 300 persons, both Negroes and whites, marched quietly several blocks through downtown Pittsburgh Sunday afternoon. The march ended in the courtyard of the federal building, where the marchers heard speeches, then sang and prayed.

More than 600 persons participated in a march and memorial service on the University of Pittsburgh campus. Some 600 persons in Philadelphia attended similar services at Independence Hall, where a group of about 30 students also ended a three-day vigil around the Liberty Bell.

At the Philadelphia rally, about 20 persons demonstrated against "the threat of a federal intervention in Selma, Ala." those demonstrators and those attending the rally in support of civil rights did not confront each other.

4 SCHOLARSHIPS

Temple University, where the Rev. Reeb was once a student, announced it awarded four full-tuition scholarships to his four children. Dr. Millard E. Gladfelter, Temple president, said the scholarships were set aside "to help make possible the kind of educational experience and understanding which led Mr. Reeb to his fatal demonstration against justice."

More outpouring of support was planned today, including a rally on the Capitol steps in Harrisburg and a march around the Capitol.

Brief Ceremony As Tunnel Opens

SOMERSET, Pa. (AP) — Traffic started rolling through the new tunnel through Allegheny Mountain on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Monday.

A brief ceremony was held at the 6,000 foot, $10 million tunnel. Patrick E. Kerwin, vice chairman of the Turnpike Commission and Lester F. Burlein, commission chairman, attended.

Work began on the tunnel in August, 1962, and workers bored through last summer.

For the next nine months to a year, all traffic will share the new tunnel while the old tunnel is being reconditioned. Then the new tunnel will accommodate eastbound traffic only.

KERR DEFERS RESIGNING AS HEAD OF U. OF C.

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Clark Kerr was still president of the 65,000-student University of California today after an apparent victory in a showdown with the Board of Regents over student discipline.

The regents appeared still divided on how swiftly and strongly uncooperative students should be disciplined.

Kerr, 53, a former labor negotiator who knows the art of dickering, and acting Chancellor Martin Meyerson withdrew their threat of resignations Saturday after a 5 1/2-hour, closed-door emergency session with regents.

The educators, however, left the door open. Their announcement said they had decided to continue "pending further discussions with the Board of Regents."

Presumably these "further discussions" will climax the regular March 25-26 regents' meeting.

It was a barefoot youth carrying a placard with a shocking four-letter sex word on it who triggered events that nearly toppled the administration of one of the nation's biggest universities.

John J. Thomson, 23, a non-student with a Beatle haircut, claimed his obscenity crusade was an extension of free speech.

This was against a background of six months of trouble during which the campus' Free Speech Movement demanded more political advocacy freedom on-campus and "due process" discipline.

Nine persons—including three students—were arrested March

MOVE TO GET APPALACHIA FUNDS FOR PA.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The ink is hardly dry on the Appalachia law but Pennsylvania lawmakers are wasting no time in trying to take advantage of the federal program.

Pennsylvania is one of 11 states eligible for aid under the $1.1 billion measure signed into law last week by President Johnson.

Sen. Robert D. Fleming, chairman of the Senate appropriations committee, said he will hold a special meeting today to report to the floor a $5.5 million authorization for mine reclamation projects in connection with the Appalachia program.

NO MAJOR ITEMS

This will generate enough funds to provide about $15 million for backfilling abandoned strip mines on public lands, flushing deep mines and sealing abandoned entrances.

There were no other major items on the schedule for members of the General Assembly as they returned to work Monday. The Senate met at 3 p.m. and the house an hour later.

The controversial school bus bill, approved by the house last week, is temporarily off the tracks.

In still another matter, Senate majority leader Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford, said Sunday a bipartisan bill calling for revision of the so-called "tax anything" law will be introduced Tuesday in the Senate.

PROPOSED TAX CHANGES

This law, act 481 of 1947, empowers Pennsylvania's local governments and school districts to levy on any subject not taxed by the state.

Big changes proposed in the bill, Stroup said, would be clarification of tax applications and a revision in the organizational structure.

There are 52 counties in the state eligible in the Appalachia program. Gov. Scranton said last week he would seek federal approval for construction of 800 miles of primary road construction under the program.

Speaking of the $5.5 million mine reclamation authorization, Fleming said over the weekend, "I have every confidence that we will get this bill to the floor promptly."

PLAN HEARINGS

The log jam on the school bus issue probably will not break until early next month at the soonest.

The House-approved bill

London Subway Uses Honor Boxes

LONDON (AP) — Londoners were put on their honor Monday and asked to drop their subway fares into honesty boxes.

"Most people seem to be paying up," said a spokesman for the transport company after the morning rush hour.

The honesty boxes were placed at 115 of London's 228 subway stations after most of the underground's ticket sellers defied their union leaders and walked out on an unofficial, 24-hour strike.

London's subway system is publicly owned. The fares range from just under 5 cents to about 60 cents, depending on the distance traveled.

British Ordered To Stay Indoors

BAHRAIN (AP) — British servicemen and their families were ordered Monday to stay indoors following a weekend of violent riots set off by a student demonstration and an oil workers' strike. An oil worker was killed.

The ruler of this British island protectorate in the Persian Gulf, Sheik Isa Bin Sulman Al Khalifa, appealed to the workers to return to their jobs. There was no immediate response.

which would provide free transportation for private and parochial students along already established routes, has yet to be referred to the Senate education committee.

That committee has the Scranton administration school bus bill, similar to the House bill, under consideration and is going to hold public hearings later this month. They will extend into early April.

Scranton has said he would accept either bill.

Also at a standstill is the legislative milk probe. It cannot begin until more groundwork is established and money is appropriated to finance staff help.

20 TESTIFY AT 4TH HEARING ON REDISTRICTING

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mayor Joseph M. Barr of Pittsburgh wants multi-member political districts in the state abolished.

"I know no valid reason for perpetuating the practice of legislative districts with more than one representative," Barr said Saturday.

He was among 20 mayors, state legislators and college professors from Western Pennsylvania who testified at a hearing held by the House Committee on Elections and Apportionment.

NO EXPLANATION
Barr added: "The federal district court which last spring held that Pennsylvania apportionment statutes were invalid specifically stated that there is no rational basis for these multi-member districts."

"The court declared that multi-member districts follow no consistent or logical pattern" and the Commonwealth offered no explanation for this "curious pattern."

The "one man, one vote" apportionment concept handed down by the U.S. Supreme Court was supported by most witnesses, said Rep. A. T. Fenrich, D-Allegheny, vice chairman of the committee.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has held the present apportionment is invalid and has directed the Legislature to draw up a new plan by next September or it will take over the matter.

The hearing was the fourth of eight.

JOHNSON ASKS $360 MILLION IN POVERTY AID

By DON CARSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has asked Congress for $360 million to get the Appalachia development program under way this fiscal year.

The $1.1 billion plan, signed into law earlier this month, is designed to stimulate development of an 11-state area where the per capita income runs below the national average. And the unemployment rate is above the national average.

Most of the money is earmarked for road improvement and development.

The region covers all of West Virginia and parts of Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

ROAD PROGRAM

The presidential requests include:

Commerce Department, $248 million to cover initial work on highways and local access roads, supplemental grants for construction or equipment facilities, research grants and grants to aid local development districts.

Department of Agriculture, $40.3 million to cover soil conservation, watershed planning, speeding up construction of improved watersheds plus other work by the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service, Farmers Home Administration and the Forest Service.

PENNSYLVANIA RESERVOIR

Army Corps of Engineers, $17.2 million for planning on the Cowanesque and Full Brook reservoirs in Pennsylvania and the Burnsville Reservoir in West Virginia and to start construction of Paint Creek Reservoir and Willow Island Locks and Dam in Ohio. The White House said Johnson also ordered the Engineers to speed up construction planning for the Aylesworth Creek Reservoir in Pennsylvania.

Department of Health, Education and Welfare, $34.7 million to cover grants supporting the construction and operation of multi-county health facilities, waste treatment works, demonstration of controlling acid drainage from mines and its resulting water pollution.

Interior Department, $19.2 million, for restoration of areas damaged by mining.

The trail blazed by Mary Baker Eddy, Christian pioneer, nearly 100 years ago is just beginning to be fully appreciated.

She was the first to insist that divine healing of sickness is a necessary and natural element of all Christianity, as a sign of its complete redemptive power.

From 1866 to 1909 she devoted her life to explaining this power in a way that would help modern man to reach a deeper understanding of the Bible.

She said, "We must learn that God is infinitely more than a person or finite form can contain; that God is a divine Whole and All, an all-pervading intelligence and Love, a divine, infinite Principle; and that Christianity is a divine Science."

Her most important works were a book called "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" and the founding of the Christian Science church which now has some 3,300 branches around the world.

In her book she wrote, "When the divine precepts are understood, they unfold the foundation of fellowship, in which one mind is not at war with another, but all have one Spirit, God, one intelligent source, in accordance with the Scriptural command: 'Let this Mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.'"

Provide Bibles Despite Protests

LEBANON, Pa. (AP) — The Lebanon School Board is continuing its policy of making Bibles available to school children despite a protest letter from the American Civil Liberties Union and an opinion by the board's own solicitor that the practice is illegal.

The board, meeting Monday night, denied a charge by the ACLU that the Bibles were being "distributed," saying instead that they merely were being "made available" to pupils by the Lebanon unit of the Gideon Society.

"It is my own personal opinion that we disregard the ACLU letter and continue to allow the Bible to be made available to the students," said Clark Royer, a board member. "I think it's about time someone takes a stand against his so-called minority rule, and I will vote against any motion to drop this policy."

Blame Survivor For Fatal Fire

READING, Pa. (AP) — A fire which killed Mrs. Margaret Ambrose, 31, and six of her children last Saturday was started accidentally by a surviving daughter, Paulette, 7, fire investigators reported Monday.

The investigators said the little girl was playing with matches and ignited paper bags on the kitchen floor as the victims lay asleep on the second floor.

The report was submitted by Kenneth Sweigert, city detective, Michael A. Wisniewski, state police fire marshal, and fire chief Russell Bowers.

The three said they would turn the information over to juvenile authorities.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Historical and Museum Commission was under fire today for its selection of Strasburg, Lancaster County, as the site for the Pennsylvania Railroad Museum.

"Altoona is the home of railroading," Reps. Robert E. Clarke and W. William Wilt, R-Blair, declared Monday in a resolution introduced in the House.

COMMITTEE CAN'T BLOCK NEW BUS BILL

By JACK LYNCH
HARRISBURG (AP) — House Democrats are prepared to move in another direction if the Republican-controlled Senate Education Committee fails to send the school bus bill to the floor for a vote.

Sen. Preston Davis, R-Northumberland, education committee chairman, was quoted in published reports that knowledgeable persons had informed him the House-approved school bus bill might not be cleared by his committee.

Rep. Martin P. Mullen, D-Philadelphia, one of the bill's House floor managers, said he anticipated trouble from the Senate committee.

PASSED HOUSE BILL

"But if they don't give us the bus bill it will be necessary for us to follow the same course as the last time, that is amend some important education bill to cover the bus bill plan," said Mullen.

The House last week passed eight days after introduction a plan to require school districts to provide tax-supported bus transportation to private and parochial school children on established routes.

Similar bills were introduced in the Senate in the 1963 session, but were killed by committee action.

PREDICTS BARRAGE

House Democrats then amended an important education bill to include the school bus proposal, forcing the Senate to make a public stand. The plan was defeated.

Mullen said that if the school bus bill, which has Gov. Scranton's endorsement, is defeated the Republican party will have "to bear the brunt of it all."

Mullen said proponents of the plan will barrage the Senate with letters if no action is taken by the Senate Education Committee after it completes public hearings next month.

Question Pentagon Claim Many Favor Guard Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — A leading member of the House Armed Services Committee has attacked sharply a Pentagon statement that 37 states and the District of Columbia have accepted the controversial plan to merge Army Reserve units into the National Guard.

Secretary of the Army Stephen Ailes announced Monday that all but 13 states and Puerto Rico had agreed to allocation of combined units under the reorganization plan, and that they were expected to fall into line shortly.

Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-La., chairman of an Armed Services subcommittee which plans hearings soon on the plan, promptly branded Ailes' statement "entirely inaccurate," adding:

"BRAINWASH?"

"They're trying to build up their case in the newspapers to brainwash public opinion before our hearings."

Hebert said many of the states indicating approval of the plan "gave a proper qualification by adding 'subject to approval of Congress.'"

The Pentagon said implementation of the plan, announced by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara last Dec. 12, would begin July 1 "if the legislation so permits."

The plan would transfer some 145,000 Army Reservists and their units into the National Guard which would be boosted to a new strength of 550,000 men, all in top priority units expected to be ready for deployment within eight weeks of mobilization.

CONVERT SOME

The plan also calls for elimination of 21 low-strength, under-equipped Guard divisions and conversion of most of them into high-strength brigades.

Pennsylvania is among the 13 states still out of the fold.

The Pentagon list of the new distribution of the eight priority divisions included:

28th Infantry Division, Massachusetts, will be broken down into the 26th Brigade, Massachusetts, 187th Brigade, Massachusetts, and the 157th Brigade, Pennsylvania.

Would Extend CS Coverage In Penna.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Rep. Thomas J. Foerster's so-called "Little Joe" bill is before the House again, aimed at extending civil service coverage to some 40,000 more state employees.

The Allegheny County Democrat proposed legislation Monday that would provide civil service protection to all state employees except department heads and administrative assistants in charge of state operations.

"It's the same amendment I tried to get in 1963 when the Scranton Administration passed its civil service program," Foerster said. "It's for the little guys like clerks and stenographers in the Highways Department and dishwashers and janitors in state institutions."

The "Little Joe" bill died in 1963, but Democrats are in control now.

Say Jersey Autos Pollute Pa. Air

HARRISBURG (AP) — Are New Jersey cars responsible for the exhaust fumes polluting Philadelphia air?

"Yes," say four House Republicans from Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Reps. Charles G. Nicholson, Montgomery; John Stauffer, Chester; John H. Hamilton Jr., Philadelphia, and John S. Rominger, Bucks, called Monday for the State Air Pollution Commission to contact its New Jersey counterpart and "work out measures" to control the problem.

- fast. Ovens and broilers heat to desired temperatures faster than you thought possible. Surface units are hot in seconds.
- fully automatic. Dependable, steady electric heat frees you from pot-watching, eliminates guesswork, prevents over-boiling or burning. Just set the automatic controls—and look forward to a delicious meal.

See what a wonderful difference a new electric range will make in your kitchen! Stop in at your appliance dealer's showroom... and find out why an electric range cooks rings around the rest!

Queen Meets Duchess Of Windsor For First Time When She Calls On Uncle

By RAYMOND E. PALMER
LONDON (AP) — Relations between Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor are expected to grow closer now that the queen has ended the royal family's 28-year boycott of the twice-divorced duchess.

Elizabeth drove through the rain Monday night to call on her uncle and the American-born woman for whom he gave up his throne. It was the first meeting of a member of the royal family with the former Wallis Warfield Simpson since Edward VIII abdicated in 1936 to marry "the woman I love."

MEET IN CLINIC

The meeting occurred in a dimly lit, gray-papered suite in the London Clinic where the 70-year-old duke is recovering from three operations to correct a detached retina in his left eye. There was growing speculation that the queen now may invite the duke and duchess to stay with her at Windsor Castle. The meeting also spurred talk that the Windsors' exile from Britain may end if they wish to return here to live.

Since the abdication, the duke and his wife have lived abroad, mainly in France and in the United States.

MET 7 YEARS AGO

During nearly three decades of exile, the duke has visited his homeland more than 40 times. On occasions he has lunched with the queen, but the duchess never accompanied him. The duke and the queen last met seven years ago.

The meeting was apparently the queen's idea, although it frequently has been suggested as a move that would be popular with her subjects. Both the queen and the duke are held in high public esteem, and the duke has often been described as the queen's favorite uncle.

The queen's visit to the London Clinic was informal.

She arrived in a Rolls-Royce limousine, wearing a red dress and matching coat, at 6:40 p.m. A small group of people waiting in the rain saw her smile cheerfully as she walked into the clinic with Sir Michael Adeane, her private secretary.

PRIVATE VISIT

The queen met several of the doctors and surgeons who have been attending the duke and then went to his suite on the fourth floor. The queen, the duke and the duchess talked alone for 25 minutes. The duke was out of bed, sitting in a chair. "It was a completely private visit," said an official of the clinic. "No refreshments were served."

Buckingham Palace revealed no details of the visit. As she left, the queen told the matron, Miss Joan Lewis: "I have enjoyed my visit."

Scranton Record Is Under Attack

HARRISBURG (AP) — Rep. John E. Gremminger, D-Delaware, says Gov. Scranton has what the lawmaker terms a "weak . . . record" in the field of civil rights.

Gremminger said in a statement Monday that Scranton's concern over civil rights in Alabama "has the embarrassing effect of bringing his own weak Pennsylvania record . . . into sharper and more painful perspective."

The statement was released after Scranton had led a formal demonstration protesting racial incidents in Selma, Ala. In a speech, heard by some 1,000 persons, Scranton had called on "good men" to discard their "indifference" to the civil rights movement.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A new chamber orchestra, called the Chamber Symphony of Philadelphia, has been formed. In making the announcement Monday, Feodor U. Pitcairn, former president of the Philadelphia Chamber Orchestra Society and board chairman of the new group, said it will begin its premiere season in October, 1966. He said Anshel Brusilow, who announced his resignation from the Philadelphia Orchestra in January, would be musical director and conductor.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mayor James H. J. Tate has instructed the police and Licenses and Inspections Department to work out procedures to put into effect April 15 an ordinance controlling the sale and acquisition of firearms.

Tate signed the ordinance into law Monday. The bill had been passed by City Council last Thursday.

Tate said he hopes that Philadelphia and in southern New Jersey will adopt similar controls.

Maria Callas Fans Appear At Airport

NEW YORK (AP) — Seventy-five screaming fans greeted soprano Maria Callas at Kennedy Airport on her return Monday night to New York for her first appearance at the Metropolitan Opera since 1958. That was the time she got into a dispute with the Met general manager, Rudolf Bing.

Miss Callas is to sing the title role in "Tosca" Friday and on March 25.

Actress Protests Billboard Nude

NEW YORK (AP) — Workmen put a big canvas patch on a giant picture of Jane Fonda reclining nude on a Times Square billboard after an outraged protest from the actress.

The billboard advertises a new movie, "Circle of Love." The advertisement showed Miss Fonda on her stomach on a bed—undraped, until the canvas patch went up Monday.

"There is no such scene of me in the picture," she said and hired a law firm to seek a court order prohibiting the display.

Will Not Operate On Actress' Father

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Doctors say they do not plan to perform emergency brain surgery on art dealer Francis Taylor, 65, father of actress Elizabeth Taylor.

Taylor suffered a stroke Thursday. His famous daughter arrived by air Friday from Dublin, Ireland, where her husband Richard Burton is making a movie.

Doctors said Monday he took a sudden turn for the worse and they made tests to see whether he could undergo brain surgery. They said they decided against it.

ASK U. S. COURT TO TAKE CASES

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Twenty-six persons awaiting trial on charges stemming from civil rights demonstrations at Moss Point have asked a federal district court to take jurisdiction of their cases. They say their arrests violated the constitutional rights of freedom of speech and assembly.

The group includes Pau Shanahan, a Pennsylvania State University student from Wilmington, Del., one of three white persons arrested. Their trial, set for Monday, was postponed until next Monday.

Meanwhile, Shanahan and six others remained in jail in lieu of $750 bond.

In a petition filed Monday, the demonstrators said they carried signs protesting segregation at a segregated school, but contended they did not sing, call out or shout.

The motion charged that some members of the group were brutally beaten after they were picked up on charges of malicious trespassing and refusing to obey a police officer.

Civil Rights Slogan Quoted By Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson quoted the slogan of the civil rights movement — "We shall overcome" — in his voting rights address to a joint session of Congress Monday night.

He said: "It is not just Negroes but really it is all of us who must overcome the crippling legacy of bigotry and injustice. And we shall overcome."

Later he said: "These enemies too — poverty, disease and ignorance — we shall overcome."

Discover Blaze During Fire Drill

GALLUP, N.M. (AP) — School system employees and students who have classes in the Gallup school administration building dutifully filed out of the building Monday during a routine fire drill.

As they stood outside, someone noticed smoke coming from an attic store room.

Firemen at the scene for the drill grabbed extinguishers and went to work. The fire caused an estimated $400 damage.

REPORT ON TIMBER

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton reports that forest products sold last year by the Department of Forests and Waters brought a total of $982,774. Scranton announced Monday that the department sold 48,426,000 board feet of sawtimber, 26,067 standard rough cords of pulpwood, and other miscellaneous forest products.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)

A budget of $8.9 million for the next fiscal year was adopted Monday by the Bucks County commissioners. The budget calls for an increase in real estate taxes of $2.70 per $10,000 of assessed valuation. It also includes an appropriation of $670,000 for a new community college.

JUVENILES ARE TRIED BY PEERS IN NEBRASKA

EDITOR'S NOTE — Trial by juvenile. Juan Peron and his Virginia license. Beefsteak Charlie, king of the hoboes. Man vs. sea nettle. All are a part of the U.S. scene this week.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP) — Youngsters who run afoul of the law in Grand Island are learning what it means to be judged by their peers.

They face an advisory jury of six high school students in District Court Judge Donald H. Weaver's court.

The young jurors are learning something about the difficulties of justice, too. Six boys and girls sit in the jury box during juvenile trials, hear the evidence and then discuss it informally in Weaver's chambers. The judge asks their recommendation, although he isn't bound to adopt it.

The judge will continue the plan through the current school year. Next September he will decide whether it should be continued.

"So far," he says, "I've seen no reason why it should not be continued."

VA. PLATES IN SPAIN

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Among the sights in Spain is a deposed Argentine dictator riding around in a French car with Virginia license plates.

Juan Peron is the most famous of the 2,000 or so "Virginians in exile" who use Virginia plates in Spain and 50 other nations.

For Peron it's an expired 1961 license numbered A271-679, which he got through the mails in February 1962.

Virginia is a mecca for foreigners and Americans living abroad who want to register their cars cheaply and without bother.

This mail-order business brings about $40,000 a year to Virginia, one of the few states that doesn't require proof of residence. The purchaser need show only proof of ownership and insurance, and most foreigners are content to pay the $20 extra for the uninsured motorist fee.

"KING" CAMPAIGNS

BOONE, Iowa (AP) — A cold north wind blew and nearly a foot of snow covered the ground but the man in the colorful wool knit ski cap explained he was on an important mission.

It must have been because he had left warm, sunny Florida more than a week before to hitchhike to wintry Iowa.

He carried a slogan: "Beefsteak in every pot, beefsteak for all and all for beefsteak."

The man was "Beefsteak Charlie" campaigning around the country for re-election as king of the hoboes next summer at the 65th annual Britt, Iowa, Hobo Day.

Beefsteak Charlie — he gives no other name — said when he was first elected last summer that he was 43, had been a hobo 30 years and was from New York.

For years the pesky little sea nettle has had things pretty much his own way. Now man may be about ready to strike back.

The sea nettle, or jellyfish, is a small white umbrella-shaped creature which inflicts a nasty sting with his delicately formed tentacles. He makes life miserable for swimmers in the Chesapeake Bay during much of the summer and is found, in some form, in salt water throughout much of the world.

The Maryland Department of Chesapeake Bay Affairs is seeking, and is likely to get, $25,000 at the current session of the state legislature to study possible ways of eliminating the sea nettle from the bay.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)

Wardell Reed, 49, of Philadelphia, was killed Monday when struck by the rim of a truck wheel. Reed had been at work at the Globe Hoist Co., Wyndmoor, when a tire blew up and the rim flew off.

Use Wrong Flag Over Parliament

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — "That's the wrong flag," said the delegate from South Viet Nam as North Viet Nam's flag was raised before Parliament House today at the opening of a two-week session of the Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East.

A Boy Scout hauled down the Communist flag. Twenty minutes later the right one was flying.

A spokesman for the New Zealand government said the flag had been pulled from the wrong bin.

"It was just a mistake, and it was our mistake," he said.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Dr. R. Hadly Waters, a business analyst at Pennsylvania State University, says forecasters who looked for a serious slowdown in business activity in the second half of 1965 are beginning to reverse their predictions.

Dr. Waters noted in the current issue of the Pennsylvania Business Survey that business activity has continued to be brisk with the gross national product (GNP) for the first quarter of 1965 likely to be from $10 billion to $15 billion higher than the final quarter of 1964.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A bench warrant has been issued for the arrest of Joseph T. Buckley, 38, a former employee of the Bryn Mawr Trust Co., on a charge of embezzling $9,417.

Federal Judge Ralph C. Body issued the warrant Monday after a federal grand jury returned an indictment against Buckley, of Bryn Mawr. The judge set bail at $500.

GERMANS AND DANES DRILL

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Left-wing demonstrators threw themselves in front of trucks bringing German troops into Denmark today for the first time since the Nazi occupation ended 20 years ago.

The German soldiers came to take part in a joint exercise with Danish troops.

Danish police dragged the small group of demonstrators off the road at a crossroads 200 yards north of the German-Danish border.

Six were arrested, including a young girl.

The line of 43 trucks, carrying 161 army engineers to the maneuvers in northern Jutland, was halted temporarily by the slogan-shouting demonstrators half an hour after crossing the border.

The leader of the group was the Rev. Harald Soebye, 55, who has been expelled from the Lutheran Church for his activities.

SAY CASUALTY REPORT BASED ON BODY COUNT

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department said, in effect, today that only part of Gen. Harold K. Johnson's estimate of 75,000 Communists killed in South Viet Nam was based on verified reports.

The Pentagon said the Viet Cong toll listed for 1964 and so far in 1965 is based on actual count of Communist bodies. This total comes to about 20,500 enemy dead.

It is not known how the figures were arrived at prior to 1964, the Pentagon said.

U.S. officials on the spot have said that Viet Cong casualty figures have been based largely on unauthenticated statistics provided by Vietnamese governments, together with claimed results from air strikes against the Communists.

FIGURE AT ISSUE

The validity of figures on enemy casualties put out by the U.S. government has been at issue since early this month when Gen. Johnson, the Army chief of staff, told the Senate Armed Services Committee that about 75,000 Viet Cong had been killed so far.

Among others, Sen. Stephen Young, D-Ohio, has disputed the accuracy of Johnson's figures. In response to inquiries about the method of determining casualty figures, the Defense Department said that only a body count is now used as a basis for reports.

VERIFY COUNT

Both South Vietnamese troops and U.S. advisers are sources for these statistics, the Pentagon said. U.S. advisers with the Vietnamese units verify the count on the spot, it said.

"Also, there are cases of going back over an area to verify results of strikes by count, graves, witnesses or other cross-check means," the Pentagon said. "There must be verification."

Statistics for 1964 and 1965

Friday Deadline On Bus Hearings

HARRISBURG (AP)—Friday is the deadline for organizations to schedule an appearance to testify at Senate hearings on school bus transportation for parochial and private school students.

Sen. Preston B. Davis, R-Northumberland, chairman of the committee, set the deadline Monday, saying plans for the hearings March 24, 25, 31 and April 1 are almost complete.

His committee is considering an administration bill that would permit private and parochial students to ride tax-supported school buses on already established routes.

A House-approved bill, similar to the Senate measure, is also in the Senate committee.

SAVE THE BRIDGES

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky's Highway Department is taking steps to preserve 18 old wooden covered bridges remaining in the state.

A study is underway to determine how many of the bridges can be maintained.

The bridges have been gradually disappearing in Kentucky, and historical groups have clamored for their preservation.
